RED WHITE AND WHO HAS ARRIVED AT ATB!

At long last, cases of Red White and Who: The Story of Doctor Who in America have finally arrived at ATB HQ from the printer, and we can begin to ship them out to all of you! So here's how this is going to work - and remember, there are still only two of us.

We plan to start shipping books tomorrow (Thursday, August 31), packaging and shipping in batches to get them out as quickly as possible. However, since we're about to head into Labor Day weekend, it's possible that some books will not leave here until next week. In all cases, however, customers will receive e-mail notification when their shipping label has been printed and a tracking number enabling them to check on transit.

Let us repeat once more how much we appreciate your support during the long and complicated process of bringing this book into existence, and especially your patience as we dealt with the last logistical hurdles thrown in our way by the printer. We are confident that when the book finally gets into your hands, you will agree that it was worth the wait.
